WHY IT WAS NOW DONE.

The report of the proceedings of the People's Republican Convention, which we publish this morning, will explain, to the satisfaction of every one, why the hoped-for and expected fusion of the Whig and Republican Conventions did not take place. Every candid man must admit, upon perusing those proceedings, that our remark of yesterday morning, that the blame and sin of preventing an union, does not rest upon the Republican Convention, was correct. It will be seen that there was no difficulty at all, about the platforms of the two conventions. They both breathe the same spirit; they both aim at the same ends; they both are ESSENTIALLY RIGHT on the great questions of the day. The only ground of contention was, a difference of opinion on the basis upon which a union should be formed. The Republican convention extended to the Whigs an invitation to unite with them; offered to receive them as members of the convention; to allow each member his own individual vote. The Whigs declined this invitation, but said they would come in, provided that they—thirty-seven in all—should be allowed to cast 209 votes; that is, that each member of the thirty-seven which composed their convention, should, upon coming into the Republican convention, laying down the name of Whig, and taking that of a Republican, be allowed to cast five votes and a fraction! This unfair, ungenerous and unheard of proposition, was, of course, be listened to by the Republicans, and the union, accordingly, was declined by the leaders of the other convention.

It needs no argument to show that this course was the only safe, honorable and just one for the Republican convention to pursue. They came there, not as Whigs, but as Republicans, and as such, could listen to nothing which would lead to the success of the Republican cause. They have done right, and the people will approve of their action.

We have no reason to believe that the Whigs of this District will endorse the action of the leaders of their convention, in this respect. We say the leaders of the convention, for we know that there were members of the Whig convention who were anxious that this position of the Republicans should be adopted. We have every reason to believe that the Whigs of the District, as a general thing, will cast their votes for the Republican nominee. In the first place, they cannot forget that he is actually the nominee of more Whig votes than were in the Whig convention; three or four times the greater number. For, in the Republican convention there were to be found many of the best and most faithful Whigs of this District. These men voted for Woodworth, and they did so because, by so doing, they knew they were cementing together the bonds of the Republican party, an object for which we believe nine-tenths of the Whigs throughout the District are deeply solicitous.

Again, the Whigs of this District, have at heart the success of the principles of the Republican party. They know that to secure this success, a warm, earnest, cordial, and undivided support should be given to the nomination which the convention has made, and they will give it in that support. There are some to whom it is a matter of personal profit and interest, to keep up a separate Whig organization in this District. It was the prevalence of the counsels of this faction which caused the Whig convention to decline the union, and all that they can effect, will be done, to retain their candidate in the field, and keep up their party name. But the mass of the Whigs are not with them, and all the support which they will receive will be from those few Nebraska Whigs, who will vote for the straight ticket to weaken the anti-Nebraska vote.

The Journal of yesterday evening announces that Mr. Blackwell has accepted the Whig nomination. We do not see how he could do so, with consistency, when he remembers the strong ground he took, but two days since, in favor of the Republican organization; the appeals he made in favor of a fusion; and the zeal with which he denounced the clinging to old and useless party organizations.

THE AURORA CONVENTION AND OUR CANDIDATE FOR CONGRESS.

We lay before the voters of this Congressional District the proceedings of the Republican Convention at Aurora, on the 20th inst., and the result of its deliberations will, we doubt not, give as much satisfaction to a large majority, as it has done to us. We have made the proceedings very full, in order that the spirit which pervaded the convention may be clearly seen and understood by those who do, as also those who do not, sympathize with the objects of it. The Platform is radical, concise, comprehensive, and shows that those who constructed it understand the real issues before the country, and the sentiments of the Republican party in reference to them.—There is no mistaking its meaning in a single line or sentence, and it is a pleasure to know that it was adopted unanimously and enthusiastically.

Of the character of those who constituted the convention, we may say, that no respectable and intelligent body of men never before assembled in Northern Illinois for political purposes. It embraced representatives not only the political, but the agricultural, commercial, manufacturing and mechanical interests of the District. The petty jealousies that usually enter into the deliberations of conventions, found no place in this.—The members had no motives beyond the election of a candidate whose character and professions warranted the belief that he would do by whomever then in Congress, standing up to defend the Right wherever and wherever it may be endangered. They have done so, even more satisfactorily than we had expected, considering the independence of thought and the personal preference which characterized the members. They have presented to the Republican voters of this District, as eminently worthy of their support, the name of our fellow-citizen, JAMES H. WOODWORTH,—a man then whom no one stands higher in the estimation of this community. Mr. W. is a plain, practical man, entirely devoid of "fuss" talent; has a clear intellect, and must exert a commanding influence in whatever position he may be placed. He has the north side, of being emphatically a Western man, having lived in the West a large part of his life. He is not without legislative experience, either,—having served a term in the Senate of this State, where he was noted for his practical business talents. Mr. W. comes from the people, too, and unfeelingly their wants better than any person whose pursuits have not brought him into immediate and constant contact with them. That he will be an intelligent and uniform exponent of their principles, and an unswerving advocate of their interests, we have not a doubt.

The political antecedents of Mr. Woodworth are well known. He has always been identified with the Democratic party, though he has never sanctioned its departure from the doctrines of the framers of the Constitution on the slavery question, in all of its phases. It may be said, however, that his connection with that party has been mainly nominal, resulting from ethical views of his responsible, resulting from ethical views of his responsibility. He has, nevertheless, been known as the true stanch and effective in its practical merits. With thousands of the best men of the party he has been seriously and anxiously watching, for years, to turn it into a better direction,—constantly hoping for success. The Compromise measures of 1850, though opposed by him to the last, were sustained in. But, after the steps which the party has taken in favor of violating a solemn compact, in order that slavery may be extended,—after the announcement that slavery must be nationalized, and the whole power of the Government exerted to increase slave territory and slave States, let the cost be what it may in life or treasure,—and when, too, the party, so far as the Presidency and his advisers are concerned, rallied in solid phalanx, against all measures calculated to develope the resources of the country, increase public prosperity, and advance the general welfare, then he severed all connection with that party, and proffered active union for a common cause against it. And no higher testimonial in favor of his integrity and ability could have been given than in the fact that a majority of the members of the convention which nominated him had always been opposed to him on party questions, and that none urged his nomination with more earnestness than dozens of persons who had been old life-long Whigs, and who took an active part in his support.

We do not know with what favor the nomination of Mr. W. may be received in the western counties of the District, further than their sentiments may have been reflected by the delegates from them. That, we are pleased to say, promises a satisfactory response. As to our own county and city, we can speak definitely. Here, at home, we understand the sentiments of our fellow-citizens very well, and we can promise our Republican brethren, in the Western counties, that the majority for their nominee shall not be less than three thousand over the highest candidate of any other party, and it may be five thousand. We shall almost entirely annihilate all opposition. Will not our brethren elsewhere in the District do likewise?

REPUBLICAN CONVENTION FOR THE SECOND CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT.

Hon. Jas. H. Woodworth, of Chicago, nominated.

The Republican Convention of the people of the 2nd Congressional District of Illinois, met according to the call published in the Tribune and other papers of the District, at Aurora on yesterday.

The Convention met at 11 o'clock, in the Congregational Church, and was called to order by the appointment of Rev. A. J. Joslyn, of Kane county, temporary Chairman, and W. T. Burgess and Henry S. Jennings, as Secretaries.

Upon taking the chair, Mr. Joslyn congratulated the Convention upon its high character, and made a few pertinent remarks upon its objects.

Upon motion, by Dr. BOGUE, of Cook, it was resolved that the roll of delegates be called, as far as they are present.

The roll of delegates was then called, and the members from the various counties answered to their names, presented their credentials, and took their seats. The delegations, with one or two exceptions, were full.

The following are the list of Delegates as present, and the substitutes made therein as a subsequent caucus of each county delegation:

There was no delegation present from Whiteside county.

Dr. BOGUE of Cook, moved that the Delegates from each county present, when the name is not full, be authorized to cast the full vote to which their county is entitled, under the ratio mentioned in the call for the Convention.

Carried.

On motion of Grant Goodrich, of Cook, a committee of two delegates from each county, were appointed to nominate permanent officers for the Convention.

This committee was, on motion of Dr. BOGUE, of Cook, selected by the members of each respective delegation.

The following gentlemen were appointed said Committee:

Cook County—Grant Goodrich and Dr. Bogue.
De Kalb Co.—Messrs. Cotton and Beveridge.
Dupage Co.—Messrs. Gray and Smith.
Kane Co.—Messrs. Wells and Moore.
Lee Co.—Messrs. Dana and Stinson.
Rock Island Co.—J. W. Spencer and J. J. Brantley.

Some desultory conversation then took place, Messrs. GOODRICH, and MANIERE and others were opposed to waiting for a conference with the Whig Convention, while Messrs. MAYBURNE of Kane, and C. S. HUBBARD of Cook, advocated earnestly and eloquently the vital necessity of union being taken which would secure an union of all anti-slavery sentiment in the district. Mr. WARNOCK of Cook, resisted all idea of awaiting the movements of the Whigs.

The Committee on permanent nominations, now returned and reported the following as the permanent officers of the meeting:

President—C. RENTON, of Cook County.

Vice Presidents.

J. W. Spencer, of Rock Island.
A. P. Stiles, of Lee.
J. F. Farnsworth, of Kane.
Russell Whipple, of Dupage.
Wm. Patten, of De Kalb.
M. L. Dunlap, of Cook.

Secretaries.

W. T. Burgess, of Cook.
W. W. Curtiss, of Lee.

The report of the Committee was accepted, unanimously and with great applause. The President took the chair amid hearty applause, and made a few remarks appropriate to the occasion. He said that he thanked the convention for the unexpected honor bestowed upon him, and remarked that it was unnecessary to say anything of the importance and calling them to order before him, as it was evident that they all felt well.

Mr. MANIERE of Cook, moved that a committee of nine be appointed by the Chair, to be taken from the counties represented, in proportion to their respective delegations, to report resolutions expressive of the sense of this Convention.

The Chair appointed the following gentlemen as said Committee,

COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS.

Cook Co.—Geo. Manierre, Grant Goodrich, A. Hoffman.
Kane Co.—A. J. Joslyn, T. C. Moore.
De Kalb Co.—H. W. Fay.
Dupage Co.—G. Martin.
Lee Co.—F. R. Dana.
Rock Island Co.—W. H. Osborne.

The Convention, then, on motion adjourned till 2 o'clock, P. M.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The Convention met pursuant to adjournment, and was called to order by the chair.

It was moved by Mr. WARNOCK of Cook county, that all speeches made by Delegates in convention should be limited to ten minutes, unless by consent of convention, and that no one member speak but twice on the same question. Carried.

A Delegate from Whiteside, C. C. KNAPP, appeared, presented his credentials, and was received as a Delegate.

Mr. JENNINGS of Cook, moved that the convention proceed now to an informal ballot for a nominee for Congress for this District.

Mr. MAYBURNE of Kane, hoped that a platform would be first adopted, and that some efforts be made to bring about a fusion with the Whig convention. He hoped that the convention would move cautiously, and moved that Mr. Jenning's motion be laid on the table till the Committee on Resolutions report. Carried.

THE CHAIR recommended that good order be preserved while Delegates were speaking, and in speaking that no one use language offensive to those who might wish to unite with the convention. "Let," said he, "your moderation be known to all men."

Mr. MAYBURNE moved that a committee of seven be appointed to confer with the Whig convention.

Mr. JENNINGS of Cook, opposed such motion. He thought that it would interfere with the business of the Committee already appointed on Resolutions. He thought that the members of the Whig and every other party should come up with us and stand as we stand, and opposed any conference. Any such conference would be suicidal to them and us.

Mr. [illegible]

Mr. J. was going on to reply, when a gentleman said that to avoid any further remarks on the matter, he would state that the chairman of the committee on resolutions had informed him that the committee would take the responsibility on themselves to confer with a committee of the Whig convention, and had done so.

This announcement was received with evidence of unmistakable approbation. The motion to appoint a committee to confer was then withdrawn, and the chair stated that the convention would wait for the report of the committee on resolutions.

Loud calls were then made for J. F. FARNSWORTH, Esq., and Dr. EVANS. The former gentleman arose and addressed the convention in a forcible and eloquent manner.

Dr. EVANS then being vehemently called for, took the floor amid the applause of his friends. His remarks were plain, appropriate, and to the point, and were extremely well received by the Convention. An anecdote which he related, of an emigrant family going to Iowa, called forth roars of laughter, by the apt manner in which he applied it to the subject under consideration. In reply to a question on that point, he defined his position on the amendment of the Fugitive Slave Law.

Mr. CORWIN was then very enthusiastically called for, and spoke for a few minutes, in his usual eccentric and attractive manner. His remarks were very good and extremely amusing. He showed up the absurdities of some of Douglas' positions, in a peculiar and forcible light.—He most eloquently and ably forced the necessity of conciliation, harmony and union. His speech produced an admirable effect, and was doubtless productive of much good.

The Committee on Resolutions now returned into the Convention, and through their Chairman, GEO. MANIERE, Esq., made the following report:

[redacted]

The report having been read, it was moved and seconded that it be adopted as the platform of the Convention. It was accepted that the resolutions be read one by one, but the voice of the meeting was decidedly in favor of their adoption as a body.

Dr. BOGUE, of Cook, wished to make an amendment to the 5th resolution, by inserting the word "successfully" after the word "exist," which was adopted; and the question being put on the adoption of the report of the committee, it was unanimously and enthusiastically adopted.

Mr. DANA, of Lee, now stated that the Whig Convention had appointed a committee to confer with this Convention, and that the said committee were now awaiting a conference. The question being put by the Chair, as to the reception of this committee, it was unanimously voted to hear them. The Whig Committee having then entered the Hall, it was understood that they came with them a series of resolutions, which they wished to lay before the Convention, and to take steps to effect an union on the principles there laid down. Dr. JUDD, as the Chairman of that Committee, presented the resolutions, and they were ordered to be read by the Secretary. They were accordingly read as follows:

Whereas, One of the oldest and most cherished of our National Compromises has been ruthlessly overthrown in the passage of the bill commonly called the "Kansas-Nebraska bill;" and whereas this utter disregard of a solemn compact, by those who aided in its formation, and who now seek to propagate and perpetuate slavery in the Union, absolves us from all other compromises between freedom and slavery in the administration of the federal government, and compels every lover of truth and justice, to return to those great and redeeming principles by which the patriots of the revolution were governed;—promulgated by the "Declaration of Independence," and practically carried out in the celebrated and time-honored "Ordinance of 1787;" And whereas, it is desirable that all who are opposed to the Kansas-Nebraska bill should act in concert upon the great and controlling question of slavery extension;

Therefore, we as freemen, make the following declaration of principles, by which we will be governed in the coming contest.

1st. Slavery in the States where it now exists is local in its character, over which Congress possesses no constitutional control.

2d. That the Federal Government ought not to aid, by its power and patronage, or in any manner whatever, the nationalization of slavery, but on the contrary to use all constitutional means to confine that institution to its present limits.

3d. That the portion of the Kansas-Nebraska bill which declares inoperative the slavery restriction, contained in the so-called Missouri Compromise, ought to be forthwith repealed, and those territories restored to freedom.

4th. That we are in favor of the abolition of slavery in all territory over which Congress has exclusive jurisdiction.

5th. That we are in favor of such an amendment of the Fugitive Slave Law, as shall secure to the slave the right of trial by jury in the State in which he is taken, and the privilege of habeas corpus, as to his right to his freedom, and at the same time remove that legal compulsion upon the citizens of free States of this Union, which compels them to become "slave catchers."

6th. That River and Harbor Improvements, Homestead Grants, and cheap inland and ocean postage, are measures which the people of the West have a right to demand at the hands of the Federal Government.

Resolved, That in furtherance of these principles we will use such constitutional and lawful means as shall seem best adapted to their accomplishment, and that we will support no man for office under the general or state government who is not positively and fully committed to the support of these principles, and whose personal character and conduct is not a guarantee that he is reliable.

Resolved, That we cordially invite persons of all former political parties whatever, in favor of the principles expressed in the above resolutions, to unite with us in carrying them into effect.

Resolved, That we now take our stand upon these principles, and further declare that all territory hereafter settled by the United States, must be free territory.

Resolved, That we are in favor of the repeal of the laws of this State, known as the Black Laws.

Resolved, That a committee consisting of one from each Congressional District, be appointed forthwith to present the above platform of our principles to the People's Convention now in session at the Congregational church in this place, and request them to unite with us in the selection of a candidate.

GRANT GOODRICH, of Cook, moved that this Convention express their entire approbation of the sentiment of the resolutions, with the exception of the 5th, last. Seconded.

ARTEMUS CARTER, of Cook, objected to the first clause of the resolutions, which stated that the Missouri Compromise was overthrown.

It was moved that the Whig Convention be invited to join with us. Mr. Beardsley, of Rock Island, supported that motion, and hoped that the Whigs would resolve themselves into their original elements as a portion of the people, and come into this Convention as individual delegates.

Mr. WARNOCK thought that it would be dangerous to invite a whole convention of whigs, into this convention, as whigs.

Mr. GOODRICH again ably supported his original motion. He was opposed, however, to admitting the whig convention as delegates. The Convention had no power to do any such thing. The delegations are full—we have no right to admit more. We must effect a Dissolution of old parties, not an union of them, but an union of the People.

G. S. HUBBARD, of Cook, supported Mr. Goodrich in the views advanced by him. He said we were here forming a new party, which hoped to draw all the honest men of all parties together on a common platform. If, after the adoption of our principles, the whigs will come upon it as individual Republicans, all well and good, but nothing more than this can we do.

Mr. THOMPSON, of Cook, offered a substitute, in the shape of a resolution, approving of the Whig resolutions, and inviting them as individuals, to join the Convention.

Mr. GOODRICH then put his resolution in writing, as follows:

Resolved, That while agreeing in the main with the principles laid down in the resolutions sent to this Convention from the Whig Convention, but being of the opinion that we have no right, and that it would not subserve the purposes for which we have convened to accept of the proposition made by them to join in nominating a candidate, we respectfully decline their proposition.

Dr. JUDD, the Chairman of the Whig Committee spoke in explanation of the movement of the Whigs in coming into this convention with a proposition of union. If this convention would not face with the Whigs in their offer of unionized if the cause of freedom suffered thereby, the Whigs washed their hands of the sin.

There was very considerable feeling and excitement manifested at this time, and various remarks were made which we could not report.

C. H. MORGAN of Kane, a member of both conventions, was in favor of uniting with the Whigs.

Dr. LORD of Kane, said that the Whigs were already largely represented here, by Delegates sent by them as Whigs, and contended that they had no business to come in here as a Whig convention and make such demands of us.

The President addressed the convention in a few words, enforcing the duty of moderation and mildness. He felt that the Whigs were with us in spirit, but that the resolution of Mr. Goodrich should be passed. He felt that the convention had come here to do a good work, and he hoped that the motion of approval of the sentiment of the Whig resolutions, offered by Mr. Goodrich, be adopted.

The motion was put and unanimously carried. The committee on resolutions and the Whig committee then retired to confer together.

During the absence of the committee Mr. WOODWORTH was called for and addressed the convention. There appeared to be some misunderstanding as to the real issue of the resolution offered by Mr. Goodrich, and adopted by the convention, but the evident sentiment and desire of the convention was in favor of a union, on the right ground, with the Whigs.

At the conclusion of Mr. Woodworth's remarks J. J. BRADLEY, Esq., of Rock Island, responded to the call of the convention, in a most able, eloquent and high-toned speech. His remarks were worthy both of himself and of the convention, which is no faint praise.

JOHN A. THOMPSON, Esq., of Chicago,[1] was called for, and made a brief but able, pertinent, and forcible speech.

The committee now re-appeared, and GEORGE MANIERE, Esq., informed the convention that the Whig committee propose that the Whig convention have an equal vote in the balloting for a candidate. This the Republican convention would not consent to, but they made this proposition to the Whigs, that if the Whigs would dissolve their convention, and come in with us, we would admit them as delegates and allow each individual one vote. This the Whig committee declined, but said they would lay the proposition before their own convention.

In order to give them time to decide upon its acceptance or rejection, it was moved and carried.

That the convention adjourn till half past six P. M.

EVENING SESSION.

The Convention met, pursuant to adjournment, at 6 1-2 o'clock. During the interval, it was understood, not officially, however, that the Whig Convention had refused to unite with the Republican Convention on the very liberal and just basis offered on the part of the Republicans, and the Convention was, accordingly, more determined than ever to stand firmly upon the ground they had taken.

The Convention was called to order by the Chairman.

Mr. JENNINGS, of Cook, moved that the Convention now proceed to an informal ballot, for the choice of a Congressman for this District.—Carried.

It was also moved, that a majority of the whole number of votes cast be necessary for a choice.—Carried.

Four tellers were appointed to receive the votes.

The first informal ballot being taken, the result was announced as follows:

	1st BAL.
Woodworth,	56
Farnsworth,	34
Blackwell,	15
Evans,	16
Beardsley,	13
Aldrich,	13
Goodrich,	7
Larned,	2
Manierre,	4
Ogden,	1
Lockwood,	1
Skinner,	1
Total,	159

Number of votes necessary for a choice, 105.

Mr. MAYBURNE, of Kane, moved to invite the Whigs to unite with this Convention, on an equal basis.

Mr. GOODRICH, of Cook, opposed the motion. He thought we had offered them all that we could do.

Mr. JENNINGS, of Cook, also opposed the motion. He contended that the Convention should go on and elect their nominee, without any further reference to the Whigs.

The motion was, then, by a strong vote, laid upon the table.

HENRY PRINE, Esq., of Cook, from the Whig Convention, stated that the Whig Convention had endeavored to effect an union; that they had taken an informal ballot, and had then adjourned, in hope of an union being effected.

It was then moved that this Convention again invite the Whigs to come in, on the basis as offered by our Committee. Carried.

The proposition was submitted to the Whig convention, was put in writing in the following shape:

Resolved, That this convention propose to the Whig convention, now in session, that if the latter will dissolve their convention, and will come into this meeting, we will receive them as individuals, and allow each individual to cast his own vote.

JOHN A. THOMPSON, of Cook, offered the following resolution as a substitute:

Resolved, That this convention invite the Whig convention, now in session, to dissolve its organization as a convention, and that the individual delegates of said dissolved Whig convention be invited to sit in this convention, take our names, and become members of this organization and convention, each member having his vote.

Mr. WAITE, of Cook, opposed the motion of Mr. Thompson.

Mr. HOFFMAN, of Cook, ably advocated the motion, and showed its justice and propriety. He said that this convention was appointed to meet here to-day, for the very purpose of conferring and uniting with the Whigs. Our platform was identical with their own, and we should unite.

The ayes and noes were then called upon the adoption of Mr. Thompson's resolution. The vote was as follows:

Ayes,	102
Noes,	25

Moved that a committee of three be appointed to inform the Whig convention of this vote.—Messrs. Russell, White and Dole were appointed said committee.

Mr. WAITE gave notice that himself, L. C. P. Freer and F. A. Hoffman, all of Cook, would now leave the convention, in consequence of the passage of the resolution admitting the Whigs. He said they came here to represent the People and not the Whig party. This announcement was received with regret, but firmness, and the gentlemen left.

These gentlemen, we believe, after the rejection of the final proposition of the Whigs, returned into convention, and voted.

It was moved and carried, that the Whigs, coming in from the Whig Convention, be attached to the counties which they represented in their own convention.

A discussion sprang up in regard to the mode of voting, which resulted in a refusal to rescind the resolution of the morning, allowing each county to cast its full vote, whether its delegation be full or not.

It was then moved that the Convention now proceed to the taking of a second informal ballot, eight o'clock having arrived, and the Whigs not having yet come in. This ballot resulted as follows:

	2D BAL.
Woodworth,	75
Farnsworth,	39
Blackwell,	17
Evans,	9
Beardsley,	18
Aldrich,	9
Goodrich,	2
Manierre,	1
Moore,	1
Gifford,	2
Total,	173

The Committee of three which had been sent to inform the Whig Convention of the proposition made, now returned and reported, that the Whig Convention had passed a resolution to the effect, that "as they represented as many votes as the 'Peoples' Convention, they would accept the proposition tendered to them, provided that the Republican Convention allow them to cast as many votes as the Republican Convention themselves cast."

The report was received and the Committee discharged. The sense of the meeting was decidedly against the granting of any such unreasonable concession, as that demanded by the Whigs.

On motion, the Convention then proceeded to take a third ballot, which resulted as follows:

	3D BAL.
Woodworth,	95
Farnsworth,	52
Blackwell,	9
Evans,	3
Beardsley,	13
Aldrich,	9
Goodrich,	1
Moore,	3
Total,	187

Number of votes necessary for a choice, 105. The Whig committee came in and asked to be heard. Leave being granted, they offered the same resolution as before stated, as the reply to the proposition submitted by the Republican convention.

It was moved and seconded that the report be not accepted. Carried.

It was moved by Mr. ADAMS of Kane, that the convention adjourn for ten or more days, until after the other conventions of the District had been held. He supported his motion in a few remarks.

An amendment was offered to adjourn till to-morrow morning. This was lost, and the original motion to adjourn also lost.

The convention then proceeded to take a formal ballot, which resulted as follows:

	4TH BAL.
Woodworth,	103
Farnsworth,	105
Blackwell,	9
Beardsley,	4
Moore,	5
	226

Number of votes necessary to a choice, 105.—There was evidently something wrong about this ballot, as there were more votes cast than the convention had a right to poll. The error originated in some of the delegates casting both an unlisted and an individual vote, by mistake.

Before the fifth ballot was taken, it was agreed that each county, upon its vote being taken nine nays, name by name, should have the power to cast the remaining vote if not already full, to which it was entitled, in favor of the nominee who had a majority of their votes. The ballot, upon being taken, stood thus:

	5TH BAL.
James H. Woodworth	85
J. J. Farnsworth	53

Whereupon Cook County, by vote of her delegation, gave the eight votes to which she was yet entitled, for Woodworth.

The vote then stood,

Woodworth	93
Farnsworth	53

Lee county gave her nine additional votes, and De Kalb her ten additional votes, to Woodworth; and Kane county gave her nine additional votes, and Rock Island her thirteen additional votes, for Farnsworth. The vote then stood,

James H. Woodworth	112
J. F. Farnsworth	75

James H. Woodworth, of Cook county, having thus received seven more votes than were necessary to a choice, and a majority of thirty-seven over his highest opponent, was declared by the Convention to be unanimously nominated, and the nomination was ratified by three hearty cheers.

It was moved and seconded that a Central Committee, for the 2nd Congressional District, consisting of one member from each county, be appointed. Carried.

Each county nominated its own member, and the following gentlemen compose the Committee:

Geo. Manierre, of Cook.
M. S. Ellsworth, of Du Page,
M. B. Osborne, of Rock Island.
Dr. E. F. Ingles, of Lee,
——— Milliken, of Whiteside,
Jas. H. Beveridge, of De Kalb.
J. F. Farnsworth, of Kane.

A vote of thanks was passed to the Congregational Church, for the use of their house, and a collection taken up to pay for cleaning and lighting the same.

A vote of thanks was also passed to the President and officers of the Convention, for the able and faithful manner in which they had discharged the duties of their offices.

It was moved and carried, that the proceedings of the Convention be published in the papers of the District favorable to the Republican party.

And the Convention adjourned sine die, in the greatest harmony and good feeling, with three cheers for the Republican Party, and three groans for Stephen A. Douglas.

FROM THE EAST.

The Maine Election—Fall of a Building and Loss of Life—Irish Military Company Disbanded—The Webster Franklin Estate.

BOSTON, Sept. 16, 1854.

The Portland Advertiser of this morning says that in the Sixth District the run will be close between Millikin (fusion) and Fuller, (dem.,) with the chances in favor of the former, who, by the returns received, is some 900 votes ahead of his opponent. So far, Millikin has not received a vote in Androscoggin county.

A building fell in Lowell on Saturday afternoon, burying three persons, one of whom—Dennis Shea, 17 years of age—was instantly killed. The others escaped with light injuries. The building had been partially burnt before the accident.

The official order of the Governor disbanding the Bay State Artillery of this city appeared in the afternoon papers, and caused some excitement. The company is chiefly composed of naturalized Irish. At the time of the reception of the Montgomery Guards from New York, a row occurred between the three Irish companies of the city, which led to a reprimand from the Governor. The Bay State Artillery made an impudent rejoinder, and they are now disbanded.

In regard to the sale of Mr. Webster's right in the Franklin estate, it is said that it will probably be bought by Mr. Paige, one of the trustees, and that no outside competition is expected or desired.

Celebration of the Adoption of the Federal Constitution.

Philadelphia, Sept. 18.

A grand Democratic demonstration took place last evening in Independence square, to commemorate the adoption of the Federal Constitution. Great preparations were made, and a brilliant display of fireworks presented. John Robbins, jr., presided, and amongst the speakers were Gen. Walbridge; R. P. Stanton, of Ky.; Gov. Reader, of Kansas; J. Ellis Bonham, Henry Florence, Ludlow, J. Murray, Rush, Cadwalader, Tyler and others.

There was a tremendous outpouring of members, and the proceedings were enthusiastic in the extreme. The delegates marched in processions, with torchlights, banners, &c., from the various wards to Independence square, which presented a beautiful appearance, the platform being illuminated by gas lights and decorated with flags. The resolutions were read from both stands by J. Murray Rush, and adopted.

STATE MASS CONVENTION.

A Convention of all the citizens of the State of Illinois who are opposed to the repeal of the Missouri Compromise, and to the further extension and consolidation of the Slave power, and to the force of the overthrow of the existing State and National administrations which are pledged to the support of slavery, will be held on the 4th day of October, A. D. 1854, at 12 o'clock M., at Springfield, for the organization of a party which shall put the government upon a republican tack, and secure to non-slaveholders throughout the Union their just and constitutional right and influence in the Councils of the Nation.

Sheriff Bradley and the Kidnappers.

Mr. Bradley attempts to vindicate himself from the blame which the public attaches to him on account of his proceedings in the case of the kidnappers. We shall take occasion to investigate the matter and lay the result before the public. There are quasi rules of law and of fact involved which are essential, and until these are well defined, we forbear comment.

THE KIDNAPPING CASE—DEFENCE OF SHERIFF BRADLEY.

BOSTON TRIBUNE.—Dear Sir—In your article of yesterday in relation to the so called kidnappers you state several things which are not facts, which I beg leave to correct. In the first place the writ of habeas corpus commanded me to bring the prisoners forthwith, and no summon certain witnesses therein named. The prisoners were sent on Tuesday evening, at ten o'clock, and the witnesses every one of them were subpoened before ten o'clock on Wednesday morning, which gave them more than twelve hours to get ready to start. I visited the office of the attorneys who prosecuted the case, in the forenoon, but could not find any of them in; I, however found Mr. Anthony about two o'clock in the afternoon, and notified him, which gave him eight hours to get ready in. I did not know that the attorneys engaged in the case were delegates to any convention, neither do I suppose it any part of my duty to know. Instead of the witnesses being at Aurora, they were all here here and duly served to appear before Judge Treat at Springfield, and the main witness, Mr. Davidson, was served in bed before he had got up Wednesday morning; so it is plain to any one else having a right to expect any different course from me I deny.

I had but one course to pursue, and that was to answer the writ served on me by the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of the State, or render myself liable to contempt. The fact that an indictment had been found against them, made no difference as to my duty, which was plain; that was to answer the writ.

Because I chose to convey the prisoners without notifying three thousand hot-headed people, and give them a chance to raise a riot, I suppose I have committed the unpardonable sin.

But I wish it distinctly understood by all parties that I am not an abolitionist, no slave catcher, and no apologist of slave catchers, or their tokens or abettors, but am opposed to slavery in every form and manner, and will further say not of my own motion will I interfere any act of slavery, but if I am required by my position I will endeavor to execute from my custody any person legally committed to it, if I can prevent it.

I claim to have done my duty in this matter and no more. Very respectfully,

Sept. 21, '54. C. P. BRADLEY.

Marine.

Among the arrals at the port of Buffalo on the 19th, were the following from Chicago:—Propellers Plymouth, Ohio, and Niagara; brig Nautilus. On the 18th, propeller Nile; barque Nucleus; brigs Banner, Cleveland, H. R. Seymour, and Lucy A. Blossom; schooners Miranda, Arcadia, Denmark, and Dan Marble. Cleared on the 18th, for this port—propellers Plymouth, and Peacheuxing; schooner Richard Mott.

Arrived at Buffalo on the 19th, from this port on the morning, entered priest, having experienced very heavy weather during the night.

We have not seen so many vessels in port this season as at present. Our harbor is crowded.—The steamer Arabia, which has arrived since last wending, has brought down a very large fleet.

We learn from Capt. Napier, of the propeller Forest Queen, that a large number of vessels are aground on the St. Clair Flats. Among them is the propeller Queen of the Lakes.

PENMANSHIP.—A handsome and easy style of writing, is an accomplishment to any person. To attain to such a degree, one must practice under the charge of a good teacher—one who is master of the art he professes to teach. Mr. M. KETCHUM advertises in this morning's Tribune, that he is to commence an evening class next Monday, over Kean & Lee's book store, Lake st. Next to rook, to learn to write," must in this, with need instruction in that art, are recommended to call on Mr. K.

Bayne's Panorama.

The design of this Panorama, which has been executed with great skill, is to represent a voyage to Europe. The picture opens with a view of South Boston, of Boston, of Charlestown, and that portion of the harbor which connects them. We then take the steamer at East Boston, proceed to Halifax, thence to Liverpool, thence to London, thence along the Rhine. The variety of phenomena that might be supposed to attend such a voyage, is drawn so as to make the illusion very striking. Your attention is riveted, your wonder and delight excited, by a truthful representation, and in two hours and a half you have acquired a fund of instruction that can never fade from the memory. We are gratified to be informed that a good attendance abundantly attest the merit of this exhibition. The last exhibition of this splendid work of art will positively take place to-morrow night, when the grand Gift Distribution will take place. Go to South Market Hall, and see the painting.

Temperance.

J. E. VETCH, the Mohawk Dutchman, will lecture on the subject of Temperance, in the First Presbyterian Church this evening at 7 o'clock.

TO SCHOOL INSPECTORS AND TRUSTEES.—We call the attention of School Inspectors and Trustees to the advertisement of "Instructor." He brings testimonials of the highest character, and would no doubt be a valuable acquisition to those who wish to profit by his talents as an educator.

Opening light.

The new Metropolitan Hall is to be opened on Tuesday evening next, by a grand vocal and instrumental concert, under the management of P. LOMBARD. A full description of this magnificent Hall has before appeared in our columns, and there will doubtless be a big rush for seats as soon as the doors are thrown open. The concert we are assured will be one of "tip top" order.

Metropolitan Hall.

Next week we are to have the beautiful Diagraphic Mirror of the Chagres River and Gatich Land. The artist of this work of art traveled over the ground, and made careful sketches on his route. It is said to be beautiful and artistically portrayed, and the Press have spoken highly of it wherever it has been exhibited.

Theatre.—The family and friends of the late Charles Lovejoy, who was murdered while in the discharge of his duty on Monday last, improve this method of returning their sincere thanks to the City Government, members of the Day and Night Police, and County Officers, for their kindness and attention in assisting to perform the last sad duties to Our deceased.

Fanny Fern says: Thank God, the unspoken prayer of gentleness may wing its way to the throne of mercy, through every thick veil of sin and sorrow, and be heard and answered.

Steamer Michigan Ashore.

Capt. BUTLER, of the steamer Arabia, which arrived here yesterday afternoon from Milwaukee, reports that the new steamer Illinois, belonging to Col. McKnight, of Detroit, was ashore at Thunder Bay, Lake Huron—no date given. It is probable she was from Detroit bound to the Soo, as her cargo is reported to have been thrown over. The propellers Milwaukee and Mayflower had coalesvered to pull her off, but without success. She will be affected by all winds, except those from the westward.—No further particulars.

☞ Stephen A. Douglas arrived at the Tremont House last evening. Wonder if he brought a copy of the Morris resolutions in his pocket?

Accident.—One of the workmen employed on the building just completed on the corner of the Post Office Alley and Clark street, was seriously injured yesterday afternoon, while at work on the premises. He was taken home on a dray.—The particulars of the accident we did not hear.

Information Wanted.

Of Mr. George Byrd, formerly from Massachusetts, but more recently from Sandusky City, Ohio. He was a member of the Masonic Fraternity, had resided several years in Detroit—serving as city clerk, and employed in other public places. He was an elderly man, over six feet in height, and stout built. When last heard from, he was in Quincy, Illinois, in May last. Any information concerning him will be gratefully received by his friends. Address by letter to his son Frederick Byrd, Mansfield, Richmond county, Ohio; or to E. H. Willard, Chicago.

☞ Quincy (Ill.) papers, will confer a great favor by copying the above.

Holloway's Ointment and Pills, the only infallible Remedies for the Cure of Irregular and Diseases on the Skin. John Youngless (aged 20) was a great victim through the follies of youth, in eruptions on the skin, being covered with these unsightly blotches, in fact, he was utterly relieved by his appearance to enter into society. This young man, eight weeks back, tried Holloway's Ointment and Pills, and by the joint use of these remedies, his blood was so purified and purified, that the whole of the blotches disappeared, and he now enjoys excellent health. These medicines will cure any disease of the skin, no matter of how long standing.

It is directions to a disease, and the cause of the disease of the liver, and promote one of the most important functions of the system.
